

Patriotic Art Written Explanation Guidelines.

- 1) Explanation should be typed and printed.
- 2) Written part should explain the:
 - a. Content of your imagery. Describe the scene clearly.
 - b. What your imagery is supposed to represent (the overall message)
 - c. Explain why you chose the imagery you did to convey this message.
 - d. Any personal relevance that the drawing has to you is an awesome way to get extra points (family immigrated to USA, relatives in the armed forces, any other personal experience that relates to the picture or scene)
 - e. Should be at least 2 short paragraphs, or 1 longer one. The general public thinks that American teenagers are functionally illiterate compared to their own generation. Prove them wrong!
- 3) The written explanation will be pinned to your finished artwork when submitted for judging.
